

REBUS REMIX - OLYMPIC WEB SPECIAL by Dart

In Rebus Remix, players use tiles to spell the answers to clues.

The tiles themselves are either letters or icon tiles which represent words. The icon tiles have drawings, and they represent words of approximately three letters. Rebus Remix does not deal in sounds; icon tiles represent the letters in the word they represent. Once you know what an icon's meaning is, that meaning never changes.

All the answers to the clues are single, uncapitalized words in 11C, though they may be clued in a capitalized form. They are also at least four letters long and at least two tiles long. For example, the tiles at the right answer the clue "Olympic swimming medallist Spitz". This answer is four letters long and two tiles long, and the name also appears uncapitalized in 11C as a word.

There are details of the tiles worth looking for. Red arrows point to the aspect of the picture on an icon tile that you should pay attention to.

Some tiles show two opposites side by side. One side has the normal white background and a green checkmark under it, and the other is shaded out and has a red X. This tile represents the unshaded half of the picture.

The exclamation point speech bubble indicates that a creature is saying something, and it is that word that should be used as the meaning for the tile.

A speech bubble with a flag image in it tells you that the meaning of the tile is as the image would be described in that part of the world. Note that speech bubbles may appear on tiles that are neither exclamation points nor flags; these simply represent speech.

If you do a lot of these puzzles, some tiles may become familiar to you, but be careful! Some icon tiles may look similar, but they can be different in important ways. Look closely.

In the first round of this game, there are two point levels. Two-pointers should be harder than one-pointers. For the second round there are four point levels.

This .pdf contains a never-before-seen game of Rebus Remix, using official Olympic NOC designations from London 2012 instead of some of the words. I hope you enjoy the puzzles.
